RE: Change in Course Title and Description of History 6800: Women in American History

The Department of History, Philosophy and Political Science is proposing a change in course Title and Description for History 6800: Women in American History

Title:

FROM:

Women in American History

TO:

U.S. Women's History

Description:

FROM:

Examination of the status of women in the United States from colonial times to the present, the European precedents for the treatment of American women, the attempts to alter women's opportunities and rights, and the nature of reform movements in America.

TO:

This class introduces students to diverse women's experiences and activism from the pre-colonial era to the U.S. present, including the women's suffrage movement, feminism, and movements led by women of color.

Rationale for Change:

The new title is more consistent with current practices. Changing American to U.S is consistent with pathways. The new description is more inclusive and specific.
