RE: Deletion of POL 7100 - International Organizations

The Department of History, Philosophy and Political Science is proposing the deletion of POL 7100 - International Organizations

POL 7100 - International Organizations

Exploration of the roles played by international organizations (IOs) in world politics. The working of the United Nations, treaty and regional organizations and international non-governmental organizations. Students will have the opportunity to participate in National Model United Nations held each spring in New York City.

Rationale for Change:

This course was linked to Model UN a program that has been discontinued. The content of the course can be taught in Pol 59, Introduction to International Relations.
