

KCC Middle States Self-Study Standard 7- Governance, Leadership and Administration

Standard 7- Lines of Inquiry

- How does the governance structure of the College ensure transparency and accountability as well as invite engagement from all stakeholders in shared governance decisions, including CUNY system-wide governance?
- How does the College evaluate the effectiveness of institutional governance, leadership, and administration?
- To what extent does the College have a clearly established administrative structure that defines areas of responsibility and reporting relationships? How does the College assess this administrative structure?
- How effective are current administrative structures in maximizing and distributing resources in a manner aligned with its mission and goals?
- Review systematic procedures in place for evaluating leadership, shared governance, and administrative units to support the Mission and Strategic Priorities of the College and to continuously evaluate their performance.

Working Group Members

Standard 7: Governance, Leadership, and Administration

Co-chairs:

Scott Cally, Professor, Department of communications and Performing Arts and Carey
Manifold, Assistant Dean of Advisement

Aba Agolli	Interim Director of Advancement and Alumni Relations
Jennifer Corby	Assistant Professor, History, Philosophy, and Political Science
Celeste Creegan	Higher Education Officer, Environmental Health and Safety Director
Carlos de Cuba	Associate Professor, Communications & Performing Arts
Mark Eaton	Associate Professor, Library
Barbara Fairweather	Higher Education Associate, Academic Affairs, Administrative Manager
Matthew Gartner	Professor, English
Jason Leggett	Assistant Professor, Behavioral Sciences
John Mikalopas	Professor and Chairperson, Physical Sciences

Addressing the Lines of Inquiry

- The working group will form sub-groups to address each line and sub line and point to data from the evidence inventory to support our findings.