RE: Change in title and course description POL 5600

The Department of History is proposing a change in title and course description

FROM:

POL 5600: City Politics

An examination of the urban community's political actions and response to government policy. How ethnic, racial, religious and economic groups interact within the political system to meet the needs of their respective communities.

TO:

POL 5600: Urban Politics

This course explores the economic, historic, political, and social forces that shape urban life. It then examines several contested policy issues—housing, economic development, education and/or welfare. Through readings, films, discussions, and research, students will become familiar with key concepts in urbanism and how intersections of race/class/gender inform urban experience.

Rationale for Change:

The changes better align with current terminology and what material is covered as the course is currently taught.
