

Meet Chelsea Coleman

April 19th, 2017 – Kingsborough Community College held its annual Donor Recognition Reception, in which many of our most distinguished donors enjoyed an unforgettable night that celebrated their support of scholarships at the college. In the days since the reception, we have continued to receive an outpouring of praise from guests, particularly for Chelsea Coleman, a current KCC student who served as the event's keynote speaker. A Mental Health and Human Services Major and recipient of the Victoria Loconsolo Foundation Scholarship, Chelsea spoke movingly about how she overcame numerous obstacles to achieve academic success—all thanks to inspiring professors, a game-changing scholarship, and her own talent and determination.

While you may not have been able to attend the reception, you can still hear from Chelsea:

Every month, the Kaleidoscope presents a different facet of the Kingsborough experience—inspiring professors, student success stories, alumni testimonials, exciting new programs, news-making events and much more. We hope you enjoy these stories, and we also encourage you to share your unique KCC perspective with us. Whether you are a current student or an alum, a faculty or staff member, a retiree or a distinguished donor, you can also share your story!
