KCC Is Back! Fall 2026 Starts with Energy, Connection & Community

The campus is buzzing, classes are underway, and Fall 2026 is officially here at Kingsborough Community College!

From the moment students arrived, there was a sense of excitement across campus. President Suri Dutch kicked off the semester right at the front gate, personally welcoming students to KCC and helping set the tone for a semester filled with opportunity, connection, and Wave pride.

And the welcome didn't stop at the gate!

Throughout the first week of classes, faculty and staff were out across campus helping new and returning students find their way, get connected, and start the semester feeling ready to take on what's ahead.

Over at the Student Affairs Welcome Hub in U113, the doors were open and the welcome was warm! Students stopped by to meet members of the Student Affairs team, ask questions, grab breakfast, and learn about the many resources available to support them beyond the classroom—including military and veteran services, HRA benefits assistance, and support for students experiencing food or housing insecurity.

The first day of classes also brought the Academic & Student Resources Fair to the Library Breezeway, filling the space with programs, academic departments, resources, and plenty of opportunities for students to discover something new about KCC.

Whether students were looking for academic support, ways to get involved, career resources, or simply trying to figure out where to go next, the KCC community was there to point them in the right direction.

But the best part of the week was seeing KCC come alive again—students walking the campus, meeting new friends, reconnecting with familiar faces, finding their classrooms, asking questions, and beginning a brand-new chapter.

That's what being Brooklyn's Community College is all about.

MAKING WAVES TOGETHER

A New KCC Journey Begins, Welcome to KCC: New Student Orientation Brings Campus to Life

Kingsborough welcomed its newest students to campus on September 2 for a reimagined Fall 2026 New Student Experience, drawing one of the strongest orientation turnouts in recent memory.

More than 1,200 new students attended, filling the campus for a full day of workshops, resources, activities, and a beach BBQ—all designed to help students begin their KCC journey feeling informed, connected, and ready.

This year's New Student Experience was intentionally redesigned to go beyond the traditional orientation model.

The goal was not only to tell students what they need to know about college, but to help them begin experiencing what it means to belong at Kingsborough.

Students spent the morning participating in sessions on paying for college, digital tools, career planning, college knowledge, and the many resources available to support their success.

The afternoon gave students opportunities to connect more informally through lunch and games on the beach patio, while also taking care of important first-semester needs such as technology support and student ID pickup.

Across campus, faculty, staff, administrators, and volunteers came together to welcome students, answer questions, facilitate sessions, provide directions, troubleshoot, and ensure that students and their families felt supported throughout the day.

The tremendous turnout and seamless execution reflected a truly college-wide commitment to creating an exceptional welcome for Kingsborough's newest students.

Throughout the day, the energy across campus reflected exactly what the New Student Experience was designed to create: connection.

Students met classmates, learned about opportunities to get involved, connected with faculty and staff, explored campus resources, and began building the relationships that can make a large college community feel smaller and more personal.

Just as importantly, students left with more than a schedule and a list of resources. They left knowing where to go for help, who is here to support them, and that their college experience extends far beyond the classroom. From academic support and career development to student organizations, wellness resources, leadership opportunities, and campus life, orientation provided students with an early glimpse of the many ways they can make Kingsborough their own. That sense of connection is at the heart of the New Student Experience. Orientation is more than preparing students for their first day of classes—it is an opportunity to help them find their community, discover where they can turn for support, and begin to see Kingsborough as a place where they belong.

Welcome to KCC, Brooklyn's Community College. You are already finding your place—and your people. The connections that began at orientation are just the beginning of an incredible Kingsborough journey.

KCC Student Government Association Gears Up for 2026-2027

Student Government is the student's voice on campus! SGA members have the opportunity to represent the KCC student body on College Council and Standing Committees, plan events, manage a budget and advocate for their fellow students.

Through their involvement, SGA members gain valuable leadership and networking skills, help influence positive change, create new traditions, and make meaningful contributions to the KCC community.

Each year elected members participate in a three-day orientation and training program designed to prepare them for the academic year ahead.

From September 8-10, 2026, SGA members participated in a dynamic orientation and training experience filled with teambuilding activities, presentations, discussions with KCC administration, faculty and staff, and brainstorming sessions focused on their vision and goals for the upcoming year.

The SGA is excited to work together to create opportunities and spaces for learning, engagement, community building and fun!

“Being a student leader means more than being just a voice for all the students, it means learning to advocate and turn ideas into actions for our fellow students.”

Samantha Morales-Ortiz (SGA Senator)

With a renewed sense of purpose and teamwork, they are ready to take ownership of their college experience while keeping the needs and interests of the entire KCC student body at the heart of their work.

MESSAGE FROM JENNIFFER VASQUEZ FELIZ, SGA PRESIDENT

Sometimes, following your heart brings you right back to where you first began. As an immigrant woman from the Dominican Republic, I first discovered the power of student voice in high school, at International High School at Lafayette, when I participated in an educational documentary that encouraged immigrant students to share and embrace their immigration experiences through storytelling: I Learn America. Years later, through CUNY Reconnect, I returned to college. Returning to school became an act of self-leadership: reclaiming my goals, embracing new possibilities, and finding a community that believed in my potential. Kingsborough became that community for me.

Now, as President of the Student Government Association at Kingsborough, I find myself returning to that purpose: empowering students to recognize that their experiences matter, their voices belong here, and they too can help shape their community. I am proud to embrace both CUNY and Kingsborough as spaces of opportunity, growth, and belonging.

One of the most meaningful parts of SGA orientation was experiencing a sense of belonging and the beauty of building community. As students, it can sometimes be difficult to see ourselves, but this experience reminded us that leadership already exists within us. I am especially grateful to our Student Life team and our SGA advisors, Melissa Merced and Jeffrey Delgado, for creating and sustaining space where we could learn, connect, challenge ourselves, and begin discovering what kind of student leaders we want to become.

We inherit what others built before us, strengthen it together, and leave something meaningful for those who come next.

Gracias, Jenniffer Vasquez

MAKING WAVES: ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Michelle P. Steven, Ed.D.

Michelle Steven is a native of Brooklyn, New York, and was educated in the New York City public school system. Her early educational years were shaped by Catholic school, where she also learned and practiced her faith. Growing up, Michelle was active in dance, Girl Scouts, and horseback riding. Because of her love for animals, she knew from an early age that she wanted to become a veterinarian.

Upon graduating from Edward R. Murrow high school, Michelle was accepted to several colleges and universities, but the school that captured her heart was Tuskegee University. More than 1,000 miles from her beloved Brooklyn, Tuskegee was her dream school. With the support of her parents—and their reminder that she should always have a backup plan—Michelle entered Tuskegee and majored in pre-veterinary medicine to become a veterinarian. Her backup plan was communications.

While at Tuskegee, Michelle immersed herself in academics and student life. She was a member of the Tuskegee University Golden Voices choir, the Pre-Veterinary Club, the New York Club, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated. Ultimately, her interests began to point her in another direction. Michelle returned home, activated her “plan B” at Kingsborough Community College, graduated and transferred to Howard University for her bachelors.

Howard University became an important launching point for Michelle's communications career. Upon graduation, she had several employment opportunities waiting for her in New York City. She accepted a position with the newly established Fox News Channel and subsequently joined ABC News. During her time at ABC News, Michelle was part of the award-winning news coverage of the September 11 attacks, which received both an Emmy Award and a Peabody Award for outstanding news coverage.

Michelle later brought her talents to Showtime Networks, where she contributed to the launch of the Smithsonian Network and developed branding strategies. Her professional journey across television, cable, news, and media gave her a unique understanding of storytelling, communications, branding, and the power of media to inform and influence audiences.

Let's Talk About The Pivot

During her time at Kingsborough Community College, she earned an associate degree in Broadcast Technology & Management and was filled with learning more about the technical and creative dimensions of television production while developing her own voice as a communicator.

It was also during this period that Michelle discovered the excitement of radio. She had a Monday-morning radio show, giving her an opportunity to connect directly with an audience, share ideas, and further develop her voice and presence behind the microphone. Those early experiences helped shape the communicator, educator, and storyteller she would become.

Paying it forward to the next generation has remained an integral part of Michelle's life. Following her professional media career, she returned to school and earned a master's degree in communication arts from New York Institute of Technology.

What Michelle initially believed would be an adjunct teaching career in the evenings after graduate school would ultimately become a second calling.

A Calling in Higher Education

Michelle began her second career at St. Francis College, initially intending to teach part time. What began as an adjunct opportunity evolved into a decade-long career in higher education. Over the years, she has lectured in communications, developed and redesigned courses, served as the director of two degree programs, and assumed increasingly broad academic leadership responsibilities.

Today, Michelle serves as Associate Dean of Academic Affairs for Graduate, Online & Professional Studies at St. Francis College, where she provides academic leadership for graduate, online, and professional education.

Her responsibilities include academic program development and assessment, curriculum and policy development, enrollment and retention initiatives, academic planning, student advisement and progression, faculty collaboration, accreditation activities, and the development of innovative academic opportunities for diverse student populations.

Her leadership in higher education reflects the same qualities that characterized her earlier communications career: curiosity, creativity, storytelling, relationship building, and the ability to transform ideas into action.

She is particularly passionate about creating educational pathways that expand opportunity and provide students—especially those who have historically been underserved—with the support, confidence, and resources necessary to achieve their goals.

Scholar, Educator and Mentor

Michelle earned her Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) in Executive Leadership from St. John Fisher College, where her research examined Generation Y college-enrolled Latinas and their perceptions of leadership. Her scholarship reflects her broader commitment to understanding the experiences of students and developing educational environments in which students can discover their voices and recognize their own potential.

“My educational philosophy is grounded in the belief that students should be given room to be creative, encouraged to articulate what they believe in, and inspired to become passionate about their goals. I believe that confidence, coupled with perseverance, creates a viable formula for achievement.”
-Dr. Michelle Steven

Beyond her professional responsibilities, Michelle continues to mentor young women and emerging professionals, present at conferences and panel discussions, and contribute to professional, civic, educational, and community organizations. She remains an active member of the Metropolitan Jewels Ladies Golf Association, Kappa Delta Pi Educational Honor Society, the Junior League of Brooklyn, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated.

From a young girl in Brooklyn who dreamed of becoming a veterinarian, to a Tuskegee student discovering new possibilities, a Howard University television production major, a television and media professional, a Monday-morning radio host, an Emmy- and Peabody-recognized news professional, and ultimately a scholar and higher-education leader, Michelle's journey has been defined by reinvention, purpose, service, and the continual discovery of her own voice.

LEADING THE TIDE

Student Government Mobilizes KCC Campus for Voter Registration Day of Action

On September 15, Kingsborough Community College's Student Government Association (SGA) brought civic engagement directly to students with a Voter Registration Day of Action in the Cluster Breezeway.

Throughout the event, students had an opportunity to learn more about voter registration, access registration resources, ask questions, and better understand how to participate in upcoming local, state, and federal elections. By bringing voter registration directly into a highly traveled area of campus, SGA made important civic information accessible to students as they moved between classes and began the new academic year.

The event also welcomed Deanna Foote, Director of Constituent Affairs in the Office of Brooklyn Borough President Antonio Reynoso, who spoke with KCC students about voting, civic engagement, and the importance of being informed and involved in their communities.

At the heart of the event was KCC's student leadership. SGA President Jenniffer Vasquez, Vice President for Student Affairs Gabriel Subbotin, Senator Samantha Morales Ortiz, Vice President for Legislative Affairs Aymen Kassim, and Senator Barbare Mamasakhlisi were present throughout the day, helping students access information and encouraging their peers to learn more about the voter registration process.

Their hands-on involvement reflected an important part of the student leadership experience at Kingsborough: creating opportunities for students to become informed, connected, and engaged members of both the campus community and the communities they call home.

Meet Our New Social Work Interns in Military & Veteran Affairs

This fall, the Office of Student Affairs is pleased to welcome Andrew Kanovsky and Joy Gadrinab, our new social work interns supporting students through Kingsborough Community College's Military and Veteran Affairs Office (MAVA).

Located in Room C-106, MAVA serves as an important home base for Kingsborough's student veterans, active-duty military personnel, reservists, dependents, and survivors. The office helps students navigate the transition to college and connect with the academic, financial, and personal resources they need to thrive.

MAVA provides individualized support with VA education benefits and certification, one-on-one advisement, priority registration, academic program information, and connections to resources across the College.

Through partnerships with offices including Financial Aid, the Registrar, Career Development, Student Wellness, Access-Ability Services, and other areas, MAVA helps ensure military-connected students have a clear pathway to support throughout their Kingsborough experience.

MEET ANDREW & JOY

Andrew Kanovsky joins the MAVA team as a social work intern and will work alongside the office's professional staff to support the academic, personal, and overall wellbeing of our military-connected students.

Joy Gadrinab is a first-year clinical MSW student at Hunter College. As part of her clinical training, Joy will gain hands-on experience supporting students while developing her skills in counseling, engagement, resource connection, and student-centered social work practice.

Hi! I'm Andrew Kanovsky, a first-year clinical MSW student at Hunter College. I'm super excited to join the MAVA office as an intern for the year and look forward to meeting and working with you all. Before returning to school, I worked as an analyst in litigation consulting, including several cases related to mental health and educational outcomes. Outside of school, some of my interests include entomology, backpacking, and soccer. During my summers, I am also the athletic director at a sleepaway camp in New Hampshire. Can't wait to get started!

Hello! My name is Joy. I am a first-year clinical student in the masters program at Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College. I am excited to get to know the veteran-student community at Kingsborough. Prior to Hunter I've worn many hats: graphic designer, small business owner, crafty maker, sewist, and nine years of volunteer work with the English Language class in my neighborhood in the Lower East Side of Manhattan. I was born in Chicago, grew up in the suburbs, and moved to NYC in 1999 with my husband. Other interests outside of school I enjoy are: birding, jumping rope, watching soccer, reading, and sewing. I look forward to meeting and working with the community at Kingsborough.

Together, Andrew and Joy will contribute to MAVA's commitment to creating a welcoming and supportive environment where military-connected students can seek guidance, build connections, and access assistance as they navigate college life.

We are excited to welcome Andrew and Joy to Brooklyn's Community College and to our Student Affairs team!

Peter Bitwinski devoted 42 years to an accounting career with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, including 23 years working on the 69th floor of One World Trade Center in New York City. He survived both the 1993 terrorist bombing and the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. During both events, he assisted a co-worker who used a wheelchair, and on 9/11, they safely evacuated the building just minutes before the Tower collapsed. Deeply committed to educating future generations to never forget, he continues to volunteer with the Tunnel to Towers Foundation and serves as a tour guide at the 9/11 Memorial & Museum.

Wave Report Week 4 -Men's Soccer

Garden City, NY;-- The Kingsborough Men's Soccer team started off their week on Tuesday, September 15, with a hard loss to the undefeated and #5 nationally ranked Nassau Community College Lions 6-1. The Wave got off to a slow start, not scoring until the second half. Stanley Milhomme scored the only goal of the game.

Brooklyn, NY;--The Wave were able to jump back to the win column with a resounding 10-2 win over the visiting Queensborough Community College Tigers. With motivation from their loss two days prior, the team jumped out aggressively, scoring 6 goals in the first half. Freshman Chaz Bond was able to put away his first goal and first hat trick of the season all before the buzzer for halftime went off. Sophomore Omario Walters was undoubtedly the player of the game, scoring a hat trick and putting away four assists, with two of them for Chaz Bond.

The Wave continued to pressure the ball, scoring 4 more goals in the second half. With the win, the Wave captured the regular season New York City Community College Championship. They will host the conference championship game on Sunday, October 18th. Their opponent is yet to be determined.

With their first loss of the season and a terrific comeback game, the Kingsborough Men's Soccer team has all the motivation they need heading into this next week of gameplay. The Wave will take on the Dutchess Community College Falcons at Kingsborough's home turf on Tuesday, September 22nd, at 4pm.

COMMUNITY COMPASS

"Helping you navigate community standards with clarity and care."

At Kingsborough Community College, we are committed to fostering a campus environment that is safe, respectful, inclusive, and conducive to learning. As members of the KCC community, students share a responsibility to uphold standards of conduct that protect the rights, dignity, and well-being of others.

One of the foundational frameworks that guides behavior on campus is the Henderson Rules to Maintain Public Order, which outline expectations related to safety, respect, free expression, and the proper use of college facilities and resources.

These rules help ensure that our campus remains a place where academic freedom, intellectual inquiry, and community engagement can flourish.

We encourage all students to familiarize themselves with the Henderson Rules and the role they play in maintaining a positive educational environment for everyone.

Questions about the Henderson Rules, student conduct, student rights and responsibilities, or campus policies may be directed to the Office of Community Standards & Student Engagement at studentconduct@kbcc.cuny.edu.

Our team is available to help students navigate community expectations, understand the student conduct process, and connect with resources that support student success.

HENDERSON RULES TO MAINTAIN PUBLIC ORDER

The tradition of the university as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedoms; the rights of professors to teach, of scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and to express their views, free from external pressures or interference. These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the College community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the condition upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy.

Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the university campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders Kingsborough Community College has the right, and indeed the obligation, to defend itself. We accordingly announce the following rules and regulations to be in effect on Kingsborough's campus which are to be administered in accordance with the requirements of due process as provided in the bylaws of The City University of New York.

With respect to enforcement of these rules and regulations we note that the bylaws of the CUNY Board provide that the President, with respect to his or her educational unit shall:

1. Have the affirmative responsibility of conserving and enhancing the educational standards of the college and schools under his or her jurisdiction;
2. Be the advisor and executive agent to the board and of his or her respective College Committee and as such shall have the immediate supervision with full discretionary power in carrying into effect the bylaws, resolutions and policies of the board, the lawful resolutions of any of its committees and the policies, programs and lawful resolutions of the several faculties;

3. Exercise general superintendence over the concerns, officers, employees, and students of his or her educational unit.

Kingsborough Community College functions under The City University of New York system and follows the Henderson Rules to Maintain Public Order. The Board of Trustees, in compliance with Chapter 191 of the Laws of 1969 (Henderson Act) adopts the following rules and regulations for the maintenance of public order on college campuses and other college property used for educational purposes:

1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights. Nor shall he interfere with the institution's educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution's instructional, personal, administrative, recreational, and community services.
2. Individuals are liable for failure to comply with lawful directions issued by representatives of the University/College when they are acting in their official capacities. Members of the academic community are required to show their identification cards when requested to do so by an official of the college.

HENDERSON RULES TO MAINTAIN PUBLIC ORDER

3. Unauthorized occupancy of University/College facilities or blocking access to or from such areas is prohibited. Permission from appropriate college authorities must be obtained for removal, relocation, and use of University/College equipment and/or supplies.
4. Theft from, or damage to University/College premises or property, or theft of or damage to property of any person on University/College premises is prohibited.
5. Each member of the academic community or an invited guest has the right to advocate his position without having to fear abuse, physical, verbal, or otherwise, from others supporting conflicting points of view. Members of the academic community and other persons on the college grounds shall not use language or take actions reasonably likely to provoke or encourage physical violence by demonstrators, those demonstrated against, or spectators.
6. Action may be taken against any and all persons who have no legitimate reason for their presence on any campus within the University/College, or whose presence on any such campus obstructs and/or forcibly prevents others from the exercise of the rights or interferes with the institution's educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution's instructional, personal, administrative, recreational, and community services.
7. Disorderly or indecent conduct on University/College-owned or controlled property is prohibited.

8. No individual shall have in his possession a rifle, shotgun, or firearm or knowingly have in his possession any other dangerous instruments or material that can be used to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/College without the written authorization of such educational institution. Nor shall any individual have in his possession any other instrument or material which can be used and is intended to inflict bodily harm on any individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/College.
9. Any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation into or affiliation with any organization is prohibited.
10. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of illegal drug or other controlled substances by University students or employees on University/College premises, or as part of any University/College activities is prohibited. Employees of the University must also notify the College Personnel Director of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five (5) days after such conviction.
11. The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol by students or employees on University/college premises or as part of any University/college activities is prohibited.

Kingsborough Community College students are required to abide by all federal, state and city laws. Other conduct not addressed in the Henderson Rules to Maintain Public Order may still be deemed unacceptable and may be addressed by Kingsborough Community College and the Office of Community Standards & Student Engagement.

ARE YOU A VETERAN OR MILITARY-CONNECTED STUDENT?

Visit the Military & Veteran Affairs at C-106

The Military and Veteran Affairs Office (MAVA) serves the needs of prospective and enrolled active military personnel, Veterans, their dependents and survivors. MAVA aides in application and certification for students who are eligible to receive education benefits under various Department of Veteran Affairs (DVA) programs. In this role, the MAVA team facilitates smooth transition and reintegration into the college community. We provide supplemental recruitment and retention efforts, various counseling and one-on-one advisement services, priority registration, in-state tuition, academic program information, and certify eligible students to receive DVA education benefits while maintaining productive relations with the Veterans Administration and other agencies serving Veterans.
